KEYSTONE CANDIDATE FOR OFFICE WAS A DIRECTOR OF THE CONCERN

Paper That Made Unwarranted Attack Upon J. K. Tener the Biggest Beneficiary of Swindler's Advertising

The journalistic opponents of John K. Tener, Republican nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania—opponent as a simple business proposition for circulation only, as was confessed by one of them—do not publish today the fact that D. Clarence Gibboney was director this year of a "get-rich quick" company, the vice president and general manager of which has such a "shady" record that his picture reposes in the Rogues' Gallery of the Philadelphia police.

What connection there may be between this fact and the fact that the North American was favored by the crooked promoter with 4,381 lines of adertising presenting the scheme to "suckers" is left to the imagination of the reader. Anyway, the record shows that the North American, which led the attack on Mr. Tener, got more than one third of all the advertising done in eight Philadelphia newspapers.

Gibboney is candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the Keystone ticket, which is headed by William H. Berry. Both proclaim themselves immaculate and have their friends present them as the apotheosis of the pure in public and private life. Yet Berry has been revealed as doing the very things that he and his friends have charged as heinous against others, and now Gibboney is disclosed in exactly the same relation to "wild cat" financing that has been asserted was criminal on the part of Mr. Tener.

Berry had his favorite depository for State funds when he was Treasurer, "shook the plum tree" for the bank that favored his private business enterprise and furnished his $500,000 bond free.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger, an independent newspaper, presents the facts in the Gibboney case. The story states that Gibboney in February accepted a directorship and some shares of stock in a company now defunct which was promoted by an operator of shady reputation with a police record, who fled from Philadelphia to escape arrest and whose whereabouts are now unknown. This company was the Acme Lubricator Company, incorporated under the laws of Delaware in 1910, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000 the par value of the shares being $50.

The company was formed by a holding company for the manufacture of a grease lubricating cup. The chief promoter and active organizer was Menno W. Boerema now a fugitive whose picture is in the Rogues' gallery of the Philadelphia police and who has a shady past.

It is stated that the grease cup was invented and patented by John F. Lewis, that it is regarded as meritorious and is now being manufactured by a new company. Lewis in seeking to develop his grease cup met L. F. Mattes in Philadelphia and through him Boerema was interested in the enterprise. The holding company was organized with $1,000,000 capital and Boerema was made vice president and general manager. The directors were: Jerome L. Boyer, Reading, Pa.; Menno W. Boerema, Philadelphia; Henry L. Bisly, Collingswood, N. J.; William H. Fenn, Jr., Wilmington, Del.; D. C. Gibboney, Philadelphia.

It appears from some correspondence that has been secured that on February 4, 1910, Mr. Gibboney's agreement to become a director of the company was officinlly known to Boerema, the vice-president and general manager, who wrote a letter to the former under date of February 4, 1910, in which he said:

"I will have a few shares of the stock placed in your name at once in order to qualify you as a director to which place you will be duly elected at a special meeting to be held next week."

Gibboney was elected a director on February 10 and subsequently as such received communications from the company.

On March 2 Mr. Gibboney wrote a letter resigning as a director.

But Gibboney's resignation was not accepted and correspondence shows that he was addressed by Boerema as a director until April 2 when he formally resigned and the stock certificate issued to him was transferred.

Sometime afterward Boerema's record became known and he disappeared just before a meeting of the company called for May 19. Another crook was there to act as his proxy. But the remaining directors resolved to dissolve the company. Boerema had got away with $10,000 to $20,000, it is alleged. The company still owes $2,500 for advertising.

Copies of the correspondence, the stock certificate made out to Mr. Gibboney, together with portraits of Menno W. Boerema, which are taken from the Rogue's Gallery in Philadelphia are published in the Pittsburg Gazette Times this morning.

THREE ARE CHARGED WITH CRIMINALITY

Frank L. Smart of Philadelphia, whose name has been linked with that of the Republican candidate for Governor, John K. Tener, in connection with the National Public Utilities Corporation yesterday swore out warrants for the arrests of three editors of the Philadelphia North American, charging them with criminal libel.

Before instituting the suit, Smart's counsel filed in Common Pleas Court No. 5 a claim in a civil suit under which he will ask for damages in the sum of $100,000. Smart in his statement of claim in the civil action, alleges that the recent publications are calculated to "bring him into public scandal, infamy and disgrace amongst all his neighbors."

Next Wednesday at 11 o'clock was fixed by Magistrate Call as the time for hearing the charge of criminal libel.

Dairymen Raise Price of Milk Two Cents Per Quart

The price of milk has been advanced to 10 cents per quart by Charleroi dairymen the increase going into effect today. The milk trade is controlled by the Fallowfield Dairymen's Association, a protective body for the milkmen, which recently took action warranting the raise.

The summer price of 8 cents per quart, which has been in force for several seasons is thus by the action of the dairrymen increased to 10 cents per quart, as high a price as ever paid for the lacteal fluid by Charleroi consumers.

The reason given by the dairymen for the increase is the increased cost of maintaining a dairy farm, the high price of feed, and the trouble of keeping cows during the winter time. One dairyman this morning said that last winter there was not a dairyman to his knowledge who made living expenses during the past winter.

HALLOWE'EN MERRY TIME

Parade Big Feature of Celebration In Charleroi

Charleroi had a gay time last night in its second annual Hallowe'en celebration. Absolutely devoid of any thought of destruction of property and overflowing with good humor the immense crowd which thronged the streets from early evening until midnight and after chloroformed dull care and mirth reigned supreme The fantastic parade was the big and charming feature of the affair, and thousands were in line, representing every nationlity and every class of individual.

A BARGAIN, OR A BUNK, WHICH?

VOTERS OF PENNSYLVANIA, CONSIDER WELL!

You are paying the cost of government. If you give up something you now have, you are entitled to receive something better in return.

It is a business proposition with you. What do they offer in exchange for your confidence?

This is what they ask you to give up:

John K. Tener, an honest man, and regular Republican, who has performed all duties, public and private, in an efficient manner.

A platform of progress, backed by the Republican party, which will be responsible to you for the performance of all promises.

This is what they offer in return:

William H. Berry, a political freebooter.

No fixed policy except one of vituperation and falsehood, backed by the discordant element of all cliques and combinations of which Wiliam H. Berry, who never kept a promise in his life, is the mouthpiece.

An administration in which chaos will be supreme with broken promises and irresponsibility at every milepost.

Most of all they offer Berry, and who is Berry?

Berry, the man who was an unscrupulous State Treasuser, and would be an unscrupulous Governor.

Berry, the man who in control of State funds made pet State depositories, that he might borrow money for the advancement of his private business.

Berry, who was a careless State Treasurer and will therefore NOT be a careful Governor.

Berry, the man who sent $25,000 of your money for deposit in a defunct bank and didn't think enough of the duties of his office to ascertain the facts for six months afterwards.

Berry, the man who was absent from his office at Harrisburg for 25 days in every month in order that he might give his attention to his private business.

Berry, who, posing as a prohibitionist, tried to dicker for the support of the liquor interest, and failing in this, lined up for local option.

Berry, who endorsed the Democratic candidate for Governor, Webster Grim, and then bolted when he saw a chance to elect himself.

Berry, the man who has been a Greenbacker, a rank 16 to 1 Free Silverite, a Bryan Democrat, a Prohibitionist, a regular Democrat, a Fusionist, and the greatest political acrobat of modern times.

Berry, the man who desires to become Governor in order that he may use the powers of that office to still further advance his private business.

CHILD FATALLY BURNED IN BIG FIRE AT NAOMI

IS HERSELF BADLY BURNED

Three Houses Destroyed By Conflagration of Unknown Origin

In a fire of unknown origin three houses at Naomi, near Fayette City, were burned yesterday. Jesse L. Gilmore the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gilmore was burned to death and Mrs. Gilmore was terribly injured. The three houses, one of which was a company house and the other two belonging to Samuel Gaskill of North Charleroi, were burned to the ground and the total loss is about $6,500 partly covered by insurance.

The house where the fire started was the one occupied by the Gilmores. The mother was at the store at the time, the child being the only one in the room. When the parent started on her return she saw smoke, but until she was within sight of the building did not supsect it to be her home. Then she saw the child writhing in agony on the floor, and made a dash to get it from the burning structure, but was knocked prostrate at the doorway by falling firebrands. Men rushed to her aid and one of them managed to enter the room far enough to get the child. From its burns it died a few minutes later. The other two houses were occupied by families of David Sloan and Chris Morris, but all the men were in the mines at the time. Nothing was saved from the Gilmore home, and little from the other two places.

The Gilmores formerly lived in Charleroi and the dead child is a grandson of John Gilmore of First street. The funeral was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment was in the Belle Vernon cemetery.

COMMISSION IS FAVORED

Congressman Tener Would Empower Investigation

Congressman John K. Tener closed his campaign in Philadelphia last night by making speeches to six large audiences.

One of the most popular statements made by Tener was when he made strong reference to the striking miners of Western Pennylvania. Regarding the strikers in the Greensburg and Irwin districts Mr. Tener said:

"In the western part of the State a strike has been on in the Westmoreland county coal fields for the past eight or nine months. As a means looking to a termination of this struggle I am informed that the miners have offered to submit the whole question for arbitration, but no consideration has yet been given that proposition. The situation is to be deplored and unless a settlement is soon effected I will urge, if elected the appointment of a commission by the Legislature to inquire into the indnstrial conditions in that section and also into the working and living conditions of the workmen."

WILL TENDER NEW PASTOR RECEPTION

The congregation of the Methodist Episcopal church with their friends will tonight tender a reception to the new pastor, Rev. F. A. Richards. Joshua; sung; welcoming addresses, W. S. James and H. J. Booth; song, ladies double quartet; address of welcome from the Ministerial Association, Rev. C. F. Erontz; reading, Miss Mary Walters; welcoming addresses from ministers, Rev. G. G. Kerr, Rev. C. S. Joshua, Rev. V. G. Hostetter, Rev. J. T. Hackett, Rev. L. W. Shev, and Rev. J. E. WAS DEMOCRAT BUT IS NOW FOR TENER

John J. Steitler, a liveryman of Smicksburg, Indiana county, was a visitor in Charleroi yesterday with friends. Mr. Steitler was last year a Democratic committeeman, but he was unable to swallow the Democratic candidate this year, or more truly felt the superiority of the Republican candidates over those put up by the Democrats, and is hustling for all he is worth for J. K. Tener and his colleagues. He says that in Indiana county the conditions are good and that Mr. Tener is proving a favorite and will carry the county.

Will Gibboney Retire?

Will the Philadelphia North American, the Pittsburg Leader and the Washington Observer, which are flashing the scandalous articles about Congressman John K. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, charging him with being the associate of swindlers and crooks in the promotion of an alleged swindling concern, now turn their mud batteries upon D. Clarence Gibboney, Keystone candidate for Lieutenant Governor? Gibbony, the corrector of morals, has been connected with an attempt to float a "get-rich-quick" scheme, one of the promoters of which was a man whose photograph is in the Rogue's Gallery in Philadelphia. Gibboney was a stockholder and a director, and he resigned after a brief membership in the concern. More than that his stock was given to him it is presumed for the use of his name.

It is probable that Mr. Gibboney will excuse himself and explain his connection with this company, and declared that his connection with it was in good faith. Will the North American, which asserts that it is in the business of exposing crooked and swindling corporations for the good of the public and is not actuated by political bias or personal animus, accept Mr. Gibboney's statement, and condone his connection with this swindling concern? Following out its avowed policy of upholding only the righteous, will it not demand Mr. Gibboney's retirement from the Keystone ticket? That is the only course the North American can pursue to be consistent and to set itself aright before the public. Mr. Gibboney has been caught "with the goods on." It is up to the North American and all good supporters of the Keystone ticket to demand his retirement.

Berry's Weakness

"The Public Utilities charge against Mr. Tener, if private matters are to be gone into, is not half as damaging as that which might be made against Mr. Berry, who cannot pay his debts because he is a bankrupt, many a good man's failing," says the Uniontown Herald. "Mr. Berry's creditors are suing to recover their money. Is there a single purchaser of stock in Tener's Utilities Company suing for a penny?

"Let us strip the situation of its sentiment. If Mr. Berry would make a better Governor than Mr. Tener because the former is a churchman and the later a business man why not go into the pulpit for all our candidates?

"If Mr. Berry would make a better candidate than Mr. Tener because the former is a bankrupt and the latter a successful business man, why not nominate a ticket of bankrupts?

"If Mr. Berry would make a better Governor than Mr. Tener because the former is a chronic office seeker and the latter is a successful one, why is it that Bryan is not President?

"As we said before this is the last week of the campaign. Let us stop our hyterics and get down to realities.

"As Governor would Berry help or hinder? Should fraud be discovered in the State's administration of affairs by one of the newpsapers would its representative have to hammer for a week on the doors of the executive mansion in order to get a hearing? It took longer than this to induce Berry, when he was State Treasurer, to take action in the capitol frauds when they were discovered by a Philadelphia newspaper.

"Just who did the more to bring the Capitol grafters to justice, Reformer Berry or plain Republican Governor Edwin S. Stuart?"

ELECTRIC SPARKS

The price of milk has gone up in Charleroi. My goodness, that naughty Penrose fellow again.

The only thing not exactly agreeable in a well regulated penitentiary is that they won't let a fellow carry a night key.

Politics are not so warm but what a fellow can take a sleep occasionally.

In some sections roads are neglected to prevent auto speeding. The effectiveness of this plan is offset by the disadvantages the country people have to undergo.

They arrested a woman in Ohio for swindling. What's the matter out there in that punk old piece of Commonwealth; can't they provide enough candidates to go around?

People can't ever get married now, without being inconvenienced by some fanatic wanting to take a straw vote among the wedding guests.

Sarah Bernhardt is 67 years old. She has always been able to "come back."

Speaking of phantoms; did you see Ernie Acheson's bunch last night?

Berry has a hunch that he would like to be Governor; Gibboney also has a hunch, but it is unlike Berry's. Gib thinks he wants to be Lieutenant Governor and indirectly the boss of the Commonwealth. And speaking of hunches E. F. Acheson has one too—one of his periodical hunches. This hunch has it's source in Washington county; he also wants to be boss.

Efforts are being made to have the acid drawn from the Monongahela river. We knew Penrose would do something as soon as he found how mad people were at him for his carelessness and neglect.

ATTACKS ON JOHN K. TENER NOT VALID

From The Uniontown Herald

This is the last week of the present campaign. It is also the most important one This is the period of closing up the gaps, for tightening the lines, eliminating the weak spots and preparing for getting out the vote. In this State it will mark the close of a campaign as sensational in its ending as it was tame in its beginning.

The last three weeks have witnessed a fierce and virulent attack on the business record of John K. Tener, an attack which, up to the beginning of last week, placed the candidate on the defensive, not a desirable position either in politics or warfare. Opposition means aggression and the newspaper attacks of the present campaign do not belie the term.

It is charged that John K. Tener is not a fit candidate for Governor because in the days of his youth he was a ball player. Is that any argument?

It is charged that he is a member of a well known secret fraternity Is that any argument?

It is charged that he is not in favor of union labor because an unimportant trolley road in which he happpens to be financially interested employs men who are not affiliated with labor organizations Is that any argument?

And finally it is charged that as president of the National Public Utilities company he was the head of a concern which sought to fleece the public through the sale of its stock. Some argument there, if the charge be true, but is it?

Has any holder of the stock of the Utilities company come forward with the claim that he has been victimized? No.

Has Mr. Tener offered to take up the stock held by any man doubting its value at just what he paid for it? He has.

Has Mr. Tener not shown that he went into the company with full faith in its prospects? He has.

Has the paper making the charge against him not admitted that in the directorate of that same company there are half a dozen men of the highest personal and financial standing in Pennsylvania? It has.

Hasn't Mr. Tener shown that if these men, amongthem keen financeers, could be induced to go into the company there as sure some excuse for him? He has.

But because these other men are in private life they are reputable, and because Mr. Tener is in public life, he is disreputable. Is that good logic; is it fair; does it follow? It is not, and it does not.

Mr. Tener has a public record, not to speak of a hitherto estimable private one. As to his fitness for Governorship public record would be the best criterion. He sat in the House of Representatives as the member from his Congressional district during the extraordinary session of 1909 and the succeeding long session. As the representative of a great manufacturing district he was immediately placed on important committees. That constitutes his public career, yet not a single word has been uttered against it although it has been subjected to microscopic scrutiny.

RESCUE CAR FOR MINES

Brownsville, Uniontown, Connellsville, Scottdale, Indiana, Johnstown, Windber, South Fork, Portage, Cresson, Punxsutawney, Clearfield, Phillipsburg and State College. Brownsville is the only place in the 21st district, of which F. W Cuningham of Charleroi is Inspector, where a demonstration will be given The car is to be taken to Marianna from Monongahela this afternoon and on the following day will be taken to Brownville to leave there on the afternoon of November 3.

Mine Inspector Cunningham has received a letter from the Bureau of Mines inviting him to accompany the party as long as possible.

The providing of these new cars is the first important step taken by the new bureau in its efforts to reduce the appalling loss of life in American mines. In European countries the per capita loss of life in the mines is smaller than in the United States, where rescue apparatus has been in use for some time. Similar apparatus is being introduced in this country with the same end in view.

In addition to a mining engineer, who lectures on greater safety in mining, and a Red Cross surgeon, who gives demonstrations in first aid to the injured, each car has a complete corps of rescue men who teach the miners how to use the oxygen helmets as well as train them in practical rescue work.

Christians In Old Rome.

Religious persecution as such was unknown under the Romans. The Christians were regarded as seditious In denying the divinity of the Caesars and the Roman gods they were guilty of high treason in Roman eyes and were accordingly punished. But their punishment had no religious significance whatever. The Christians were persecuted not because they were Christians, but because, in the opinion of the authorities, they were disturbers of the peace and safety of the state. Religious persecution was a thought that never entered the Roman mind.—New York American.

Phantoms strutted through the streets, Romeos with Juliets on their port side made merry, girls looking like the cover pages of magazines were happy, white men for once with blackened face looked like Lew Dockstader, Weary Willies were thicker than hops, and then there were giants and Liliputians, German comedians, Uncle Sams, and thousands of other makeups to plentiful too even suggest a name.

In the parade there were several floats decorated in a fantasy of colors and fixed up in the most picturesque style imaginable. The P. H. C. float which won the prize for the best decorations was arranged for carrying on of the P. H. C. degree work and the degree team of the order was on the platform, giving an exhibition of their work. Other floats showed the old fashioned square dance, the plantation scenes of years before the war by the West Penn Electric company, and even on airship made flights through the streets.

After the parade prizes were awarded by the judges, John Jenkins, Roland Brown and John Mathias, from their reviewing stand at the corner of McKean avenue and Fifth street. The prizes and winners were as follows:

Best decorated float, P. H. C., $10.00; finest ladies' court attire costume, prize $5.00, Miss Sadie Deboe; most comic ladies' costume, prize $3.00, Miss Rebecca Allison, Charleroi, old maid; second most comic ladies' costume prize $2.00, Mrs. Charles Jones, Charleroi, widow's weeds; finest girl's costume, prize $2.50, Miss Clara Schwer, Charleroi; most comic girl's costume, prize $2.00, Miss Irene Kimmell, Charleroi, yellow kid; finest gentleman's costume, prize $5 00, Ross Thirkeld, Fayette City; most comic gentleman's costume, prize, $3.00, George Lowstutter Monessen, Irish navey; second most comic gentleman's costume, prize $20 00, John Murhead, Fayette City, Zulu; finest boys' costume, prize $2.50, Master Hardy Albright, Charleroi full dress German; most comic boy's costume, prize $2.50, Miss Margaret Kimmell, Charleroi, yellow kid.

The checks for the prize winners will be sent out today some time by J. D. Berryman, the treasurer of the committee, which had the Hallowe'en celebration in charge. After the parade had dispersed groups paraded the streets, creating much laughter by their antics, but there was practically no disorder, and very slight damage done in any part of town. Only three arrests were made during the whole evening.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. in winter when you have a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a portable radiator which can be moved to any part of a room, or to any room in a house. When you have a you do not have to work close to the stove, which is usually far from the window. You can work where you wish, and be warm. You can work on dull winter days in the full light near the window, without being chilled to the bone.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

The Perfection Oil Heater quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap, put in like a cork in a bottle, is attached by a chain. This heater has a cool handle and a damper top.

The Perfection Oil Heater has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged and can be unscrewed in an instant for rewicking. The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

MADAM CLIFFORD HERE NEXT WEEK

The World's most famous woman, Madam Clifford the Queen of Mystery, has been secured by the management of the Coyle Theatre to appear in Charleroi for a period of one week and will begin her engagement on Monday, November 7, giving matinee on Saturday. It may be said that this woman has demonstrated in all parts of the country that mental telepathy and psychic mind and character reading is one of the deepest studies as well as the greatest part of it being a gift from birth.

Some people think that there is no such thing as mind reading or mental telepathy. They are mistaken and to be inconvinced is a simple matter. Everybody has friends in Charleroi and there will be some of your friends that will ask questions of Madam Clifford during the week, people that you know and can trust to tell the truth, so anyone that is skeptical all they will have to do is to spend an evening at one of the performances and watch for a friend asking a question and consult them the next day which should satisfy you that there is such a thing. At the same time you will see Madam Clifford do all her work in plain sight without an intermission and answer the questions in an intelligent manner, whether you bring the questions with you from your home or write them at the theatre and at the same time it would be impossible for her to receive assistance from any one either by code or signs.

Madam Clifford is supported by one of the best companies now touring the large cities having made her selections from all the large circuit and getting her choice of acts. You will get comedy, opera, variety, drama, vaudeville and mystery in this attraction and will pass one of the pleasantest evenings of the year with Madam Clifford's performance

Remember the first night and get the coupon. They are only good for this one night and are limited to 200 and must be presented at the box office before 7 p. m. Prices will be popular at night 10, 20 and 30 cents; the matinee 10 and 15 cents. The sale of seats opens Wednesday at the box office.

Not What He Seemed.

Lieutenant General J. M. Grierson tells an amusing story of some maneuvers in which he took part. Only a small body of troops were being actually employed, and "skeleton forces" were the rule—in other words, small bodies of men represented whole divisions. General Grierson with his staff was riding along a lane when he suddenly came upon one of the enemy's pickets sitting calmly by the roadside. Quickly the general rode up to him and said:

"You are my prisoner; you had better surrender."

The man grinned and pointed to a flag beside him.

"Beg pardon, sir," he said, "but I am a brigade of infantry, so you are all my prisoners."—London Mail.

How To Stop —A— Stubborn Cough

Cough syrups cannot do this. It takes a constitutional tonic body builder to do the work properly—and cure you to stay cured. Vinol is the remedy you need.

Mrs. Minnie Osgood, of Glens Falls, N. Y., writes:—"After trying several remedies for a bad cough and cold without benefit, I was asked to try Vinol. It worked like magic. It cured my cold and cough and I gained in health and strength. I consider Vinol the most wonderful tonic and invigorator I ever saw."

If we cannot stop that cough with VINOL—our delicious cod liver and iron tonic—which is made without oil—we will not charge you a cent for the medicine you buy. This seems like a pretty fair proposition—and ought to be accepted. Don't you think so? With this understanding we ask you to try a bottle of VINOL.

Paper That Made Unwarranted Attack Upon J. K. Tener the Biggest Beneficiary of Swindler's Advertising

The journalistic opponents of John K. Tener, Republican nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania—opponent as a simple business proposition for circulation only, as was confessed by one of them—do not publish today the fact that D. Clarence Gibboney was director this year of a "get-rich quick" company, the vice president and general manager of which has such a "shady" record that his picture reposes in the Rogues' Gallery of the Philadelphia police.

What connection there may be between this fact and the fact that the North American was favored by the crooked promoter with 4,381 lines of adertising presecting the scheme to "suckers" is left to the imagination of the reader. Anyway, the record shows that the North American, which led the attack on Mr. Tener, got more than one third of all the advertising doce in eight Philadelphia newspapers.

Gibboney is candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the Keystone ticket, which is headed by William H. Berry. Both proclaim themselves immaculate and have their friends present them as the apotheosis of the pure in public and private life. Yet Berry has been revealed as doing the very things that he and his friends have charged as heinous against others, and now Gibboney is disclosed in exactly the same relation to "wild cat" financing that has been asserted was criminal on the part of Mr. Tener.

Berry had his favorite depository for State funds when he was Treasurer, "shook the plum tree" for the bank that favored his private business enterprise and furnished his $500,000 bond free.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger, an independent newspaper, presents the facts in the Gibboney case. The story states that Gibboney in February accepted a directorship and some shares of stock in a company now defunct which was promoted by an operator of shady reputation with a police record, who fled from Philadelphia to escape arrest and whose whereabouts are now unknown. This company was the Acme Lubricator Company, incorporated under the laws of Delaware in 1910, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000 the par value of the shares being $50.

The company was formed by a holding company for the manufacture of a grease lubricating cup. The chief promoter and active organizer was Menno W. Boerema now a fugitive whose picture is in the Rogues' gallery of the Philadelphia police and who has a shady past.

It is stated that the grease cup was invented and patented by John F. Lewis, that it is regarded as meritorious and is now being manufactured by a new company. Lewis in seeking to develop his grease cup met L. F. Mattes in Philadelphia and through him Boerema was interested in the enterprise. The holding company was organized with $1,000,000 capital and Boerema was made vice president and general manager. The directors were: Jerome L. Boyer, Reading, Pa.; Menno W. Boerema, Philadelphia; Henry L. Bisly, Collingswood, N. J.; William H. Fenn, Jr., Wilmington, Del.; D. C. Gibboney, Philadelphia.

It appears from some correspondence that has been secured that on February 4, 1910, Mr. Gibboney's agreement to become a director of the company was officinlly known to Boerema, the vice-president and general manager, who wrote a letter to the former under date of February 4, 1910, in which he said:

"I will have a few shares of the stock placed in your name at once in order to qualify you as a director to which place you will be duly elected at a special meeting to be held next week."

Gibboney was elected a director on February 10 and subsequently as such received communications from the company.

On March 2 Mr. Gibboney wrote a letter resigning as a director.

But Gibboney's resignation was not accepted and correspondence shows that he was addressed by Boerema as a director until April 2 when he formally resigned and the stock certificate issued to him was transferred.

Sometime afterward Boerema's record became known and he disappeared just before a meeting of the company called for May 19. Another crook was there to act as his proxy. But the remaining directors resolved to dissolve the company. Boerema had got away with $10,000 to $20,000, it is alleged. The company still owes $2,500 for advertising.

Copies of the correspondence, the stock certificate made out to Mr. Gibboney, together with portraits of Menno W. Boerema, which are taken from the Rogue's Gallery in Philadelphia are published in the Pittsburg Gazette Times this morring.

THREE ARE CHARGED WITH CRIMINALITY

Frank L. Smart of Philadelphia, whose name has been linked with that of the Republican candidate for Governor, John K. Tener, in connection with the National Public Utilities Corporation yesterday swore out warrants for the arrests of three editors of the Philadelphia North American, charging them with criminal libel.

Before instituting the suit, Smart's counsel filed in Common Pleas Court No. 5 a claim in a civil suit under which he will ask for damages in the sum of $100,000. Smart in his statement of claim in the civil action, alleges that the recent publications are calculated to "bring him into public scandal, infamy and disgrace amongst all his neighbors."

Next Wednesday at 11 o'clock was fixed by Magistrate Call as the time for hearing the charge of criminal libel.

Dairymen Raise Price of Milk Two Cents Per Quart

The price of milk has been advanced to 10 cents per quart by Charleroi dairymen the increase going into effect today. The milk trade is controlled by the Fallowfield Dairymen's Association, a protective body for the milkmen which recently took action warranting the raise.

The summer price of 8 cents per quart, which has been in force for several seasons is thus by the action of the dairrymen increased to 10 cents per quart, as high a price as ever paid for the lacteal fluid by Charleroi consumers.

The reason given by the dairymen for the increase is the increased cost of maintaining a dairy farm, the high price of feed, and the trouble of keeping cows during the winter time. One dairyman this morning said that last winter there was not a dairyman to his knowledge who made living expenses during the past winter.

HALLOWE'EN MERRY TIME

Parade Big Feature of Celebration In Charleroi

Charleroi had a gay time last night in its second annual Hallowe'en celebration. Absolutely devoid of any thought of destruction of property and overflowing with good humor the immense crowd which thronged the streets from early evening until midnight and after chloroformed dull care and mirth reigned supreme. The fantastic parade was the big and charming feature of the affair, and thousands were in line, representing every nationlity and every class of individual.

A BARGAIN, OR A BUNK, WHICH?

VOTERS OF PENNSYLVANIA, CONSIDER WELL!

You are paying the cost of government. If you give up something you now have, you are entitled to receive something better in return.

It is a business proposition with you. What do they offer in exchange for your confidence?

This is what they ask you to give up:

John K. Tener, an honest man, and regular Republican, who has performed all duties, public and private, in an efficient manner.

A platform of progress, backed by the Republican party, which will be responsible to you for the performance of all promises.

This is what they offer in return:

William H. Berry, a political freebooter.

No fixed policy except one of vituperation and falsehood, backed by the discordant element of all cliques and combinations of which Wiliam H. Berry, who never kept a promise in his life, is the mouthpiece.

An administration in which chaos will be supreme with broken promises and irresponsibility at every milepost.

Most of all they offer Berry, and who is Berry?

Berry, the man who was an unscrupulous State Treasuser, and would be an unscrupulous Governor.

Berry, the man who in control of State funds made pet State depositories, that he might borrow money for the advancement of his private business.

Berry, who was a careless State Treasurer and will therefore NOT be a careful Governor.

Berry, the man who sent $25,000 of your money for deposit in a defunct bank and didn't think enough of the duties of his office to ascertain the facts for six months afterwards.

Berry, the man who was absent from his office at Harrisburg for 25 days in every month in order that he might give his attention to his private business.

Berry, who, posing as a prohibitionist, tried to dicker for the support of the liquor interest, and failing in this, lined up for local option.

Berry, who endorsed the Democratic candidate for Governor, Webster Grim, and then bolted when he saw a chance to elect himself.

Berry, the man who has been a Greenbacker, a rank 16 to 1 Free Silverite, a Bryan Democrat, a Prohibitionist, a regular Democrat, a Fusionist, and the greatest political acrobat of modern times.

Berry, the man who desires to become Governor in order that he may use the powers of that office to still further advance his private business.

CHILD FATALLY BURNED IN BIG FIRE AT NAOMI

IS HERSELF BADLY BURNED

In a fire of unknown origin three houses at Naomi, near Fayette City, were burned yesterday. Jesse L. Gilmore the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gilmore was burned to death and Mrs. Gilmore was terribly injured. The three houses, one of which was a company house and the other two belonging to Samuel Gaskill of North Charleroi, were burned to the ground and the total loss is about $6,500 partly covered by insurance.

The house where the fire started was the one occupied by the Gilmores. The mother was at the store at the time, the child being the only one in the room. When the parent started on her return she saw smoke, but until she was within sight of the building did not supsect it to be her home. Then she saw the child writhing in agony on the floor, and made a dash to get it from the burning structure, but was knocked prostrate at the doorway by falling firebrands. Men rushed to her aid and one of them managed to enter the room far enough to get the child. From its burns it died a few minutes later. The other two houses were occupied by families of David Sloan and Chris Morris, but all the men were in the mines at the time. Nothing was saved from the Gilmore home, and little from the other two places.

The Gilmores formerly lived in Charleroi and the dead child is a grandson of John Gilmore of First street. The funeral was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment was in the Belle Vernon cemetery.

COMMISSION IS FAVORED

Congressman Tener Would Empower Investigation

Congressman John K. Tener closed his campaign in Philadelphia last night by making speeches to six large audiences.

One of the most popular statements made by Tener was when he made strong reference to the striking miners of Western Pennylvania. Regarding the strikers in the Greensburg and Irwin districts Mr. Tener said:

"In the western part of the State a strike has been on in the Westmoreland county coal fields for the past eight or nine months. As a means looking to a termination of this struggle I am informed that the miners have offered to submit the whole question for arbitration, but no consideration has yet been given that proposition. The situation is to be deplored and unless a settlement is soon effected I will urge, if elected the appointment of a commission by the Legislature to inquire into the industrial conditions in that section and also into the working and living conditions of the workmen."

WILL TENDER NEW PASTOR RECEPTION

The congregation of the Methodist Episcopal church with their friends will tonight tender a reception to the new pastor, Rev. F. A. Richards. A reception will be given him between 7:30 and 8 o'clock and then a program with some changes in order will be carried out as follows: "Welcome Tonight," male quartet; prayer, Rev. C. S. Joshua; song; welcoming addresses, W. S. James and H. J. Booth; song, ladies double quartet; address of welcome from the Ministerial Association, Rev. C. F. Erontz; reading, Miss Mary Walters; welcoming addresses from ministers, Rev. G. G. Kerr, Rev. C. S. Joshua, Rev. V. G. Hostetter, Rev. J. T. Hackett, Rev. L. W. Shev, and Rev. J. E. Charles; song, "Let Me Dream," male quarter; song, ladies double quartet; response to weclome, Rev. Richards; song, male quartet.

WAS DEMOCRAT BUT IS NOW FOR TENER

John J. Steitler, a liveryman of Smicksburg, Indiana county, was a visitor in Charleroi yesterday with friends. Mr. Steitler was last year a Democratic committeeman, but he was unable to swallow the Democratic candidate this year, or more truly felt the superiority of the Republican candidates over those put up by the Democrats, and is hustling for all he is worth for J. K. Tener and his colleagues. He says that in Indiana county the conditions are good and that Mr. Tener is proving a favorite and will carry the county.

Will Gibboney Retire?

Will the Philadelphia North American, the Pittsburg Leader and the Washington Observer, which are flashing the scandalous articles about Congressman John K. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, charging him with being the associate of swindlers and crooks in the promotion of an alleged swindling concern, now turn their mud batteries upon D. Clarence Gibboney, Keystone candidate for Lieutenant Governor? Gibboney, the corrector of morals, has been connected with an attempt to float a "get-rich-quick" scheme, one of the promoters of which was a man whose photograph is in the Rogue's Gallery in Philadelphia. Gibboney was a stockholder and a director, and he resigned after a brief membership in the concern. More than that his stock was given to him it is presumed for the use of his name.

It is probable that Mr. Gibboney will excuse himself and explain his connection with this company, and declared that his connection with it was in good faith. Will the North American, which asserts that it is in the business of exposing crooked and swindling corporations for the good of the public and is not actuated by political bias or personal animus, accept Mr. Gibboney's statement, and condone his connection with this swindling concern? Following out its avowed policy of upholding only the righteous, will it not demand Mr. Gibboney's retirement from the Keystone ticket? That is the only course the North American can pursue to be consistent and to set itself aright before the public. Mr. Gibboney has been caught "with the goods on." It is up to the North American and all good supporters of the Keystone ticket to demand his retirement.

Berry's Weakness

"The Public Utilities charge against Mr. Tener, if private matters are to be gone into, is not half as damaging as that which might be made against Mr. Berry, who cannot pay his debts because he is a bankrupt, many a good man's failing," says the Uniontown Herald. "Mr. Berry's creditors are suing to recover their money. Is there a single purchaser of stock in Tener's Utilities Company suing for a penny?

"Let us strip the situation of its sentiment. If Mr. Berry would make a better Governor than Mr. Tener because the former is a churchman and the later a business man why not go into the pulpit for all our candidates?

"If Mr. Berry would make a better candidate than Mr. Tener because the former is a bankrupt and the latter a successful business man, why not nominate a ticket of bankrupts?

"If Mr. Berry would make a better Governor than Mr. Tener because the former is a chronic office seeker and the latter is a successful one, why is it that Bryan is not President?

"As we said before this is the last week of the campaign. Let us stop our hyterics and get down to realities.

"As Governor would Berry help or hinder? Should fraud be discovered in the State's administration of affairs by one of the newspapers would its representative have to hammer for a week on the doors of the executive mansion in order to get a hearing? It took longer than this to induce Berry, when he was State Treasurer, to take action in the capitol frauds when they were dscovered by a Philadelphia newspaper.

"Just who did the more to bring the Capitol grafters to justice, Reformer Berry or plain Republican Governor Edwin S. Stuart?"

ELECTRIC SPARKS

The price of milk has gone up in Charleroi. My goodness, that naughty Penrose fellow again.

The only thing not exactly agreeable in a well regulated penitentiary is that they won't let a fellow carry a night key.

Politics are not so warm but what a fellow can take a sleep occasionally.

In some sections roads are neglected to prevent auto speeding. The effectiveness of this plan is offset by the disadvantages the country people have to undergo.

They arrested a woman in Ohio for swindling. What's the matter out there in that punk old piece of Commonwealth; can't they provide enough candidates to go around?

People can't ever get married now, without being inconvenienced by some fanatic wanting to take a straw vote among the wedding guests.

Sarah Bernhardt is 67 years old. She has always been able to "come back."

Speaking of phantoms; did you see Ernie Acheson's bunch last night?

Berry has a hunch that he would like to be Governor; Gibboney also has a hunch, but it is unlike Berry's. Gib thinks he wants to be Lieutenant Governor and indirectly the boss of the Commonwealth. And speaking of bunches E. F. Acheson has one too—one of his periodical hunches. This hunch has it's source in Washington county; he also wants to be boss.

Efforts are being made to have the acid drawn from the Monongahela river. We knew Penrose would do something as soon as he found how mad people were at him for his carelessness and neglect.

ATTACKS ON JOHN K. TENER NOT VALID

From The Uniontown Herald

This is the last week of the present campaign. It is also the most important one This is the period of closing up the gaps, for tightening the lines, eliminating the weak spots and preparing for getting out the vote. In this State it will mark the close of a campaign as sensational in its ending as it was tame in its beginning.

The last three weeks have witnessed a fierce and virulent attack on the business record of John K. Tener, an attack which, up to the beginning of last week, placed the candidate on the defensive, not a desirable position either in politics or warfare. Opposition means aggression and the newspaper attacks of the present campaign do not belie the term.

It is charged that John K. Tener is not a fit candidate for Governor because in the days of his youth he was a ball player. Is that any argument?

It is charged that he is a member of a well known secret fraternity Is that any argument?

It is charged that he is not in favor of union labor because an unimportant trolley road in which he happpens to be financially interested employs men who are not affiliated with labor organizations Is that any argument?

And finally it is charged that as president of the National Public Utilities company he was the head of a concern which sought to fleece the public through the sale of its stock. Some argument there, if the charge be true, but is it?

Has any holder of the stock of the Utilities company come forward with the claim that he has been victimized? No.

Has Mr. Tener offered to take up the stock held by any man doubting its value at just what he paid for it? He has.

Has Mr. Tener not shown that he went into the company with full faith in its prospects? He has.

Has the paper making the charge against him not admitted that in the directorate of that same company there are half a dozen men of the highest personal and financial standing in Pennsylvania? It has.

Hasn't Mr. Tener shown that if these men, amongthem keen financeers, could be induced to go into the company there as sure some excuse for him? He has.

But because these other men are in private life they are reputable, and because Mr. Tener is in public life, he is disreputable. Is that good logic; is it fair; does it follow? It is not, and it does not.

Mr. Tener has a public record, not to speak of a hitherto estimable private one. As to his fitness for Governorship public record would be the best criterion. He sat in the House of Representatives as the member from his Congressional district during the extraordinary session of 1909 and the succeeding long session. As the representative of a great manufacturing district he was immediately placed on important committees. That constitutes his public career, yet not a single word has been uttered against it although it has been subjected to microscopic scrutiny.

Brownsville, Uniontown, Connellsville, Scottdale, Indiana, Johnstown, Windber, South Fork, Portage, Cresson, Punxsutawney, Clearfield, Phillipsburg and State College. Brownsville is the only place in the 21st district, of which F. W. Cuningham of Charleroi is inspector where a demonstration will be given. The car is to be taken to Marianna from Monongahela this afternoon and on the following day will be taken to Brownsville to leave there on the afternoon of November 8.

Mine Inspector Cunningham has received a letter from the Bureau of Mines inviting him to accompany the party as long as possible.

The providing of these new cars is the first important step taken by the new bureau in its efforts to reduce the appalling loss of life in American mines. In European countries the per capita loss of life in the mines is smaller than in the United States, where rescue apparatus has been in use for some time. Similar apparatus is being introduced in this country with the same end in view.

In addition to a mining engineer, who lectures on greater safety in mining, and a Red Cross surgeon, who gives demonstrations in first aid to the injured, each car has a complete corps of rescue men who teach the miners how to use the oxygen helmets as well as train them in practical rescue work.

Christians In Old Rome.

Religious persecution as such was unknown under the Romans. The Christians were regarded as seditious In denying the divinity of the Caesars and the Roman gods they were guilty of high treason in Roman eyes and were accordingly punished. But their punishment had no religious significance whatever. The Christians were persecuted not because they were Christians, but because, in the opinion of the authorities, they were disturbers of the peace and safety of the state. Religious persecution was a thought that never entered the Roman mind.—New York American.

Phantoms strutted through the streets, Romeos with Juliets on their port side made merry, girls looking like the cover pages of magazines were happy, white men for once with blackened face looked like Lew Dockstader, Weary Willies were thicker than hops, and then there were giants and Liliputians, German comedians, Uncle Sams, and thousands of other makeups to plentiful too even suggest a name.

In the parade there were several floats decorated in a fantasy of colors and fixed up in the most picturesque style imaginable. The P. H. C. float which won the prize for the best decorations was arranged for carrying on of the P. H. C. degree work and the degree team of the order was on the platform, giving an exhibition of their work. Other floats showed the old fashioned square dance, the plantation scenes of years before the war by the West Penn Electric company, and even on airship made flights through the streets.

After the parade prizes were awarded by the judges, John Jenkins, Roland Brown and John Mathias, from their reviewing stand at the corner of McKean avenue and Fifth street. The prizes and winners were as follows:

Best decorated float, P. H. C., $10.00; finest ladies' court attire costume, prize $5.00, Miss Sadie Deboe; most comic ladies' costume, prize $3.00, Miss Rebecca Allison, Charleroi, old maid; second most comic ladies' costume prize $2.00, Mrs. Charles Jones, Charleroi, widow's weeds; finest girl's costume, prize $2.50, Miss Clara Schwer, Charleroi; most comic girl's costume, prize $2.00, Miss Irene Kimmell, Charleroi, yellow kid; finest gentleman's costume, prize $5.00, Ross Thirkeld, Fayette City; most comic gentleman's costume, prize, $3.00, George Lowstutter Monessen, Irish navey; second most comic gentleman's costume, prize $2.00, John Morhead, Fayette City, Zulu; finest boys' costume, prize $2.50, Master Hardy Albright, Charleroi follies; German; most comic boy's costume, prize $2.50, Miss Margaret Kimmell, Charleroi, yellow kid.

The checks for the prize winners will be sent out today some time by J. D. Berryman, the treasurer of the committee, which had the Hallowe'en celebration in charge. After the parade had dispersed groups paraded the streets, creating much laughter by their antics, but there was practically no disorder, and very slight damage done in any part of town. Only three arrests were made during the whole evening.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

The Perfection Oil Heater quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap, put in like a cork in a bottle, is attached by a chain. This heater has a cool handle and a damper top.

The Perfection Oil Heater has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged and can be unscrewed in an instant for rewicking. The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

MADAM CLIFFORD HERE NEXT WEEK

The World's most famous woman, Madam Clifford the Queen of Mystery, has been secured by the management of the Coyle Theatre to appear in Charleroi for a period of one week and will begin her engagement on Monday, November 7, giving matinee on Saturday. It may be said that this woman has demonstrated in all parts of the country that mental telepathy and psychic mind and character reading is one of the deepest studies as well as the greatest part of it being a gift from birth.

Some people think that there is no such thing as mind reading or mental telepathy. They are mistaken and to be inconvinced is a simple matter. Everybody has friends in Charleroi and there will be some of your friends that will ask questions of Madam Clifford during the week, people that you know and can trust to tell the truth, so anyone that is skeptical all they will have to do is to spend an evening at one of the performances and watch for a friend asking a question and consult them the next day which should satisfy you that there is such a thing. At the same time you will see Madam Clifford do all her work in plain sight without an intermission and answer the questions in an intelligent manner, whether you bring the questions with you from your home or write them at the theatre and at the same time it would be impossible for her to receive assistance from any one either by code or signs.

Madam Clifford is supported by one of the best companies now touring the large cities having made her selections from all the large circuit and getting her choice of acts. You will get comedy, opera, variety, drama, vaudeville and mystery in this attraction and will pass one of the pleasantest evenings of the year with Madam Clifford's performance

Remember the first night and get the coupon. They are only good for this one night and are limited to 200 and must be presented at the box office before 7 p. m. Prices will be popular at night 10, 20 and 30 cents; the matinee 10 and 15 cents. The sale of seats opens Wednesday at the box office.

Not What He Seemed.

Lieutenant General J. M. Grierson tells an amusing story of some maneuvers in which he took part. Only a small body of troops were being actually employed, and "skeleton forces" were the rule—in other words, small bodies of men represented whole divisions. General Grierson with his staff was riding along a lane when he suddenly came upon one of the enemy's pickets sitting calmly by the roadside. Quickly the general rode up to him and said:

"You are my prisoner; you had better surrender."

The man grinned and pointed to a flag beside him.

"Beg pardon, sir," he said, "but I am a brigade of infantry, so you are all my prisoners."—London Mail.

How To Stop —A— Stubborn Cough

Cough syrups cannot do this. It takes a constitutional tonic body builder to do the work properly—and cure you to stay cured. Vinol is the remedy you need.

Mrs. Minnie Osgood, of Glens Falls, N. Y., writes:-"After trying several remedies for a bad cough and cold without benefit, I was asked to try Vinol. It worked like magic. It cured my cold and cough and I gained in health and strength. I consider Vinol the most wonderful tonic and invigorator I ever saw."

If we cannot stop that cough with VINOL—our delicious cod liver and iron tonic—which is made without oil—we will not charge you a cent for the medicine you buy. This seems like a pretty fair proposition—and ought to be accepted. Don't you think so? With this understanding we ask you to try a bottle of VINOL.
